

2016 Leas Family Reunion

The Leas family Reunion was held at the Fairfield Community Center on September 4, 2016. Total Attendance was 59. Harold Wilhelm was the oldest person attending at age 88 and Nora Christlieb was the youngest person attending at 3 months. Prayers were given before meal.

The minutes were read and approved from the 2015 Leas Reunion.

No Old Business. New Business: David Leas explained the Leas genealogy web site and how to use it. Homework was handed out to families to update their information. It was suggested we all check our family information on site to verify accuracy.

Natalie Leas Klosterman attended the Reunion from Arizona. She had the different families have group pictures taken to capture this special day. Substitutes were used for missing family members to fill the photo frames. Lori and Kurtis Christlieb provided pony rides for families.

Family news was reported as follows: Corey Douglas is out of the military and living in Florida with his wife, Sarah. Kylie Myers bought a 2200 sq ft. home in Fort Wayne. Celeste Olguin and Ricky moved to Indiana from Arizona. Tim Leas worked on a racing Bonneville and ran on the salt flats. Shannon Shuman became a Nurse practitioner. Jill and Ben Zwickl had a baby boy named August. Rachel and Matt Trent had a baby boy named Thomas. Sandra Shuman won the Leas Traveling Trophy for her Indiana Memories Table decorations.

Jill Griebel, Sandra Shuman and Kim Nusbaum volunteered to be co-presidents again. Mike Leas will still be their helper. A collection was taken of $287.00. Added to the $20.00 of previous balance, and new balance is $307.00. Cash out from this amount is:

Postage: 17.64

New Balance: 307.00 – 249.64 = $57.36

Hall Rental: 100.00

Dinner Supplies: 97.00
